

M/S Haganes is older than the Titanic. In fact M/S Haganes was only a few hundred miles away at that time whaling in the North Atlantic.

This working ship was transformed into a holiday destination. This is an experience for those who enjoy the romance of seagoing voyages of days gone by, or simply desire privacy.

Let the five crew members of M/S Haganes take you on a holiday where you are the center of attention as you are the only guests aboard the M/S Haganes. You will have your own butler or maid to tend to your wishes.

Wonderful food not institutional food is served on board. Your chef goes into the local markets so that you can experience the food of the area. The cuisine is the fusion of international and local.
